After you click submit, a pop up box will come up to allow you to save a PDF version of the tickets to your computer. If you want to print your tickets at a later time, then make sure to save the PDF file on your computer. You can open this PDF file at a later date and print it. If you would like to print the tickets now, click the purple print button.

The image shows a 'Save As' dialog box in the foreground, overlaid on a web browser window. The dialog box is titled 'Save As' and shows the 'Desktop' location. The file name is '140822' and the file type is 'Adobe Acrobat Document'. The 'Save' button is highlighted.

Below is a summary of the 2 item(s) you have selected. Your ticket(s) have now been downloaded. If you do not see the download dialogue box on the middle of your screen, please check the footer of your browser as it may be located there

Recommendation: To print your tickets at a later time without incurring further charges, save the pdf version of your ticket(s) onto your computer. If you are unable to print your ticket(s) please make sure you download Adobe Acrobat Reader 10.1 or higher here.

Note: It is advised to print your tickets immediately. Not printing your tickets now could result in you not being able to do so closer to the event start time. If you have selected to generate new barcodes for misplaced or stolen tickets, your previously printed or issued tickets will no longer be valid.

Save a PDF file if you would like to print at a later time. Otherwise, click the print button to print your tickets.

The 'print' button is circled in red.
